The Auckland Medical History Society Essay Prize was established in 2016 by the Auckland Medical History Society. The society was established in 1964 and its mission is ‘the promotion of an interest and knowledge of medical history through lectures, discussions, exhibitions and other means’.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the student who has written the most outstanding essay on a subject related to medical history.

Updated 13 June 2016

The Auckland Medical History Society Essay Prize is a scholarship for students at Stage 3 level at the University of Auckland who achieve the highest mark in a 5,000 word essay or a portfolio consisting of two 2,500 word essays, on a subject/subjects relating to the history of medicine.

The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of History (or nominee) in the School of Humanities and the coordinator of the Medical Humanities option of the Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences.

The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

Notes:

i) Regulations are subject to Senate and Council approval.

ii) The prize recipients essay may be published on the Auckland Medical History Society’s website.

Updated 13 June 2016