REGULATIONS:

1. The Award will be known as the Joan Oliver Masters Award in French.
2. The Award will be of the value of up to $1,000.
3. One Award will be made annually to the most academically meritorious student completing the requirements for the Master of Arts in French, taking into account all work examined over the whole degree (see Note i).
4. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of French (or nominee).
5. In the event of a tie, the Head of French shall determine if the Award may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.

Note:

i) Courses considered in making this Award include the range covered by French 700-797.

The Joan Oliver Masters Award in French was established in 2015 by an anonymous donor with an interest in French language and culture.

The main purpose of the Award is to recognise and reward the most academically meritorious student who has completed the requirements for either a taught or research Master of Arts degree majoring in French in the year of award.

Updated 1 April 2015