ASIAN HISTORY AWARD  CODE NO P808

REGULATIONS:
1. The Prize will be known as the Asian History Award.
2. The value of the Award will be $125.
3. The Award will recognise annually the person who, in the opinion of staff teaching Asian History courses, has demonstrated the highest level of commitment to the study of Asian History, as indicated by factors such as the number of courses taken in this subject at undergraduate or postgraduate level and significant contribution to classwork.
4. The Award will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department of History.
5. The Award will not be awarded in any particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Department of History will determine, in consultation with the Dean of Arts, if the Award may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with the Head of Department of History, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.

The award was established by a donor who wished to remain anonymous who had studied Asian History at the University.
