REGULATIONS:
1. The Prize will be known as the Charlotte Emily Lubeck Prize.
2. The annual value of the Prize will be $1,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student in their final year of a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Arts (conjoint) majoring in Film, Television and Media Studies who has achieved the highest overall marks across their best 90 points of study in Film, Television and Media Studies courses.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of Department of Film, Television and Media Studies.
5. In the event of a tie, the Head of Department of Film, Television and Media Studies shall determine, in consultation with the Donor, if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

The Charlotte Emily Lubeck Prize was established in 2012 by Nicholas H F Lubeck in memory of his mother, Charlotte Emily Lubeck (nee Taylor).

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise the top student in Film, Television and Media Studies each year.
