REGULATIONS:

1. The Prize will be known as the Jonathan Hunt Prize in Politics and International Relations.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full-time undergraduate student majoring in Politics and International Relations who achieves the best grades in Politics and International Relations.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of Politics and International Relations in the School of Social Sciences.
5. The Prize will not be awarded in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of Politics and International Relations shall determine, in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

The Prize was established in 2006 and is financed from funds which have been donated by the Right Honourable Jonathan Hunt OBE.

The main purpose of the Prize is to reward academic excellence in undergraduate courses in Politics and International Relations.

Updated 17 February 2014