THEODORE ROOSEVELT HONOURS AWARD IN UNITED STATES HISTORY

REGULATIONS:
1. The Prize will be known as the Theodore Roosevelt Award in United States History.
2. The value of the Award will be $200.
3. This Award will recognize annually a postgraduate student who has achieved the highest GPA in courses or research relating to the study of United States history.
4. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of History following consultation with the Department’s Scholarships and Prizes Committee. In awarding this Prize the committee will include at least one academic specialising in United States History.
5. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the prize in any year if there are no candidates of who have achieved a dissertation grade of A- or above.
6. In the event of a tie, the University of Auckland Council will determine in consultation with the Head of the Department of History, if the Award may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations in conjunction with the Head of the Department of History, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.

This Award was funded by Susan and Steve West for an Honours student majoring in History who has displayed the best overall academic performance in the study of United States history, through researching and writing an Honours dissertation in this field.

Updated 11 July 2013