

REGULATIONS:

1. The Prize will be known as the LexisNexis Prize in Land Law.
2. The Prize will be two book vouchers for books published by LexisNexis and/or a voucher for on-line access to LexisNexis Research Solutions products for six months to the value of $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student enrolled in an LLB or LLB(Hons) who achieves the highest mark in LAW 301 (Land Law), or who has otherwise excelled in an undergraduate property-related subject.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law.
5. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law, in consultation with LexisNexis will determine if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland has the power to amend or vary these regulations (after consultation with LexisNexis) provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

The Prize was established in 2007 and is financed from funds provided by the legal publisher LexisNexis.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and encourage excellence in the study of Land Law at The University of Auckland.
