

REGULATIONS:

1. The Prize will be known as the Meredith Connell Prize in Corporate Finance Law.
2. The value of the Prize will be $2,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the Bachelor of Laws or Bachelor of Laws (Honours) student who has achieved the highest overall mark in LAWCOMM 444, Corporate Finance Law.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law.
5. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law shall determine, in consultation with Meredith Connell, if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if LAWCOMM 444 is not taught in any year.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

Note:

- (i) These regulations are subject to Council and Senate approval.

The Meredith Connell Prize in Corporate Finance Law was established in 2012 and is funded by Meredith Connell.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward scholarship and excellence in the study of Corporate Finance Law.
