THOMSON REUTERS CRIMINAL LAW PRIZE  CODE NO P632

REGULATIONS:
1. The Prize will be known as the Thomson Reuters Criminal Law Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500. The amount of the Prize may be reviewed at any time, to make adjustments for inflation.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the LLB or LLB (Hons) student achieving the best result in course LAW 201 Criminal Law.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
5. A prize-giving and photograph session may be held at the Law Faculty at an appropriate time each year, for as long as the Prize is to be made available.
6. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law will determine, in consultation with Thomson Reuters if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with Thomson Reuters, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize. Either Thomson Reuters or the University of Auckland may withdraw from the arrangements by giving notice to the other party, at which point the Prize will be withdrawn at the end of the year in which notice was given.

Brooker's Ltd, publishers of legal books, has established a Prize to encourage excellence in the study of Criminal Law. In 2009 Brookers changed its name to Thomson Reuters Ltd.
