The Robert Riddell Heritage Prize was established in 2016 by Professor Emeritus Robert Riddell.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise the student who produced the best work in the field of heritage in the School of Architecture and Planning in an academic year. Heritage is understood to encompass the natural and cultural, and the awarded work will reinforce an understanding of its importance and how it can be preserved and conserved.

Updated 6 September 2016