SPRING PRIZE FOR STRING PLAYERS  CODE NO 76

REGULATIONS:
1. The Prize will be known as the Spring Prize for String Players.
2. The annual value of the Prize will be $800.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full-time string student achieving the highest mark in MUS 221 (see Note i) who is proceeding to stage three of the Classical Performance programme at the School of Music at the University of Auckland.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music.
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there are no candidates of sufficient merit. An additional award may be made in a later year.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of the School of Music will determine if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

Notes:
   i) Recipients must have successfully completed MUS 201, 202, and 240 or 241 in the Classical Performance programme at the University of Auckland.

The Spring Prize for String Players was established in 2008 as a Scholarship before becoming a Prize in 2015. The Prize was at the bequest of the late Joseph Bernard Spring, a violist associated with performing organisations in Auckland for many years. He was a member of the Auckland String Players (later the Symphonia, the precursor of the Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra).

The main purpose of the Prize is to assist promising string players to further their performance studies at the University of Auckland.
