ASB Scholarships

Scholarship description

The ASB Scholarships were established in 1997 and are financed from the interest generated by a $100,000 endowment provided by ASB Bank Ltd. The main purpose of the Scholarships is to recognise top Honours and Masters students in Information Systems.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- Short-listed candidates will be required to attend an interview
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarships will be known as the ASB Scholarships.
2. The amount of the Scholarships will vary each year with the performance of the endowment but will be to the approximate value of $4,000 per Scholar per year.
3. The Scholarships will be awarded each year to two full-time or part-time, Masters or Honours students in Information Systems at the University of Auckland.
4. Selection will be based on academic merit (see Note i); contribution to University and/or community activities; a personal statement outlining the applicant's ambitions, passion and how they demonstrate caring and integrity as values; and a personal interview with the Selection Committee.
5. The Scholarships will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of Business and Economics (or nominee), the Head of the Department of Information Systems and Operations Management (or nominee) and a representative of ASB Bank Ltd.
6. The Scholarships will not be awarded in a particular year if there is no suitable candidate and the interest generated by the endowment that year will be returned to the fund's principal.
7. Payment will be made in two instalments, one in Semester One and the second in Semester Two.
8. In consultation with ASB Bank Ltd, the University of Auckland Council will have the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarships.

9. The recipients will give due recognition to the donors, the ASB Bank Ltd, in any thesis or papers published that result from research conducted during the tenure of the Scholarships.

10. Applications close with the Scholarships Office, on 17 April in the year of the award.

11. Note [i] below is deemed to be a regulation.

Notes

I. For the purposes of this Scholarship, academic merit is assessed as a Scholarships GPA or GPE obtained over the applicant's most recent two years of full-time graded study (or equivalent).
