Marie Clay Literacy Trust Research Scholarships

Scholarship description

The Scholarship was established in 2007 and is funded by the Marie Clay Literacy Trust. The purpose of the Scholarship is to fund a doctoral student to undertake research into literacy education in the New Zealand context that is consistent with the Marie Clay Literacy Trust’s objectives: the support of research into aspects of literacy development and learning; the development of effective instruction and early intervention in literacy; and, associated professional development.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- Short-listed candidates may be required to attend an interview
- The Scholarships are awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarships shall be known as the Marie Clay Literacy Trust Research Scholarships.
2. One or more Scholarships may be awarded annually, initially for a period of one year, and will be of the value of up to $10,000.
