Description

The Award was established in 2012 and is funded by the Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust. From 2015, the University of Auckland will administer the Award on behalf of the Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust for University of Auckland applicants.

The main purpose of the Award is to assist a woman graduate who has completed a minimum of four years of part-time study towards a PhD or named Doctorate, to have at least four months free of employment and become a full-time student, in order to make substantial progress towards completion of a PhD or named Doctorate qualification.

This Award is also open to eligible students from other approved institutions in the Auckland area, who should apply using the application form available from the website: http://www.academicdresshire.co.nz.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Awards are made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust

Regulations

1. The Award shall be known as The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust Doctoral Completion Award.
2. One Award will be made annually, for a period determined by the Selection Committee, and will be of the value of up to $16,000.
3. To take up and be paid the Award the candidates must have completed a minimum of four years of part-time study towards a PhD or named doctorate and must enrol full-time at the University of Auckland for at least four months.
4. The Award is tenable by women students who are citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
5. The basis of selection will be academic merit and the applicant's academic achievements, research qualifications and research plans (see Note I).
