ADHB Director of Nursing Prize

Description

The ADHB Director of Nursing Prize was established in 2009 by the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences. The main purpose of the prize is to recognise the student who has the most distinguished clinical practice within the Bachelor of Nursing programme, culminating in an excellent performance during the final clinical semester.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The prize will be given by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of School of Nursing

Regulations

1. The prize will be known as the ADHB Director of Nursing Prize.
2. The prize will be $500.
3. The prize will be awarded annually to the final year student who has the most distinguished clinical practice within the Bachelor of Nursing programme, culminating in an excellent performance during the final clinical semester.
4. The prize will be given by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of School of Nursing (or nominee).
5. The prize may not be granted in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of the School of Nursing shall determine, in consultation with the directors of the Bachelor of Nursing degree, if the prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the prize.

Notes

1. This prize is presented at the Qualifying and Completion ceremony each year.
A shortlist of students to be considered for this prize is generated by clinical lecturers in NURSING 301 and 302. The programme’s directors, in consultation with clinical lecturers decide the final awardee.
