Description

The Scholarship was established in 1997 by ING (NZ) Limited in order to encourage academic excellence amongst students in the Department of Property.

In 2010 the name changed from ING Property Scholarship to Argosy Scholarship.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- Short-listed candidates will be required to attend an interview
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The scholarship shall be known as the Argosy Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship shall be awarded annually, for a period of one year, and will be of the value of up to $5,000 (see Note I).
3. The Scholarship will be awarded to a Bachelor of Property or Bachelor of Property conjoint candidate in their first or subsequent years of study within the Faculty of Business and Economics who has paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees, for full-time enrolment in the degree of Bachelor of Property or Bachelor of Property conjoint.
4. The Scholarship is tenable by a student who is a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident of New Zealand.
5. The basis of selection will be academic merit and a written statement including work experience to date (if any), university results, background interests and why the applicant believes she or he would benefit from being awarded the Argosy Scholarship (see Note II).
6. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of the Business School (or nominee), the Head of the Department of Property (or nominee) and one representative of the Donor (appointed by Argosy).
7. The Scholarship will be paid as a lump sum in two instalments, one in each semester of relevant enrolment.
8. The Scholarship may be held concurrently with any other award or grant as long as a) the terms of that award or grant permit and b) the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves.
9. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the Donor, has the power to terminate or suspend a Scholarship if it receives an unsatisfactory report on the progress of a Scholar from the Dean of the Business School.
10. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
11. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarships.
12. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 30 September in the year preceding the award.

Notes

I. Recipients may be offered the opportunity of 4-6 weeks of summer paid work experience with Argosy.
II. For the purpose of this scholarship, academic merit for students enrolled at the University of Auckland at the time of application is assessed as a Scholarships GPA or GPE obtained over the applicant’s most recent two years of full-time graded study.
III. For the purpose of this scholarship, academic merit for students enrolled in their final year of secondary study is assessed on results at Level 2 or higher in the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) or an equivalent qualification.
