Asian History Prize

Description

The Prize was established in 1986 by a donor who wished to remain anonymous who had studied Asian History at the University.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Dean (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Asian History Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student who, in the opinion of staff teaching Asian History courses, has demonstrated the highest level of commitment to the study of Asian History, as determined by factors including, but not limited to, the number of courses undertaken in the subject at undergraduate and/or postgraduate level, and the student’s contribution and engagement in classwork (see Note I).
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leaders of History and Asian Studies.
5. The Prize will not be awarded in any particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
8. Note [I] below is deemed to be a regulation.
