Description

The Prize was established in the 1990s by Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand, the trading name of the Institution of Chartered Accountants in Australia and the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise the highest-achieving students in undergraduate accounting courses.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prizes will be awarded on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Accounting and Finance

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand Prize.
2. Four Prizes will be awarded annually, and will be of the value of $500 each. The Prizes will include a certificate and a letter of congratulations from Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.
3. The Prizes will be awarded to the students who achieved the highest overall marks in the following courses: i) ACCTG 311 Financial Accounting; ii) ACCTG 312 Auditing; iii) ACCTG 321 Strategic Management Accounting and iv) ACCTG 331 Revenue and Cost Management. As a minimum standard, each student must have achieved at least an A- grade. In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the students who achieved the highest mark in the examination for the course.
4. The Prizes will be awarded on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Accounting and Finance (or nominee) in consultation with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.
5. The Prize may not be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand, provided there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
