Description

The CPA Australia Advanced Tax Student of the Year Prize was established in 2017 by CPA Australia, the professional body for Chartered Public Accountants in Australia and New Zealand. CPA Australia has a keen interest in the education and practice of tax law by certified public accountants in New Zealand.

The main purpose of the Prize is to encourage students who wish to specialise in tax practice.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office.
- The Prize will be awarded annually by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Commercial Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the CPA Australia Advanced Tax Student of the Year Prize.
2. The Prize will be of the value of $500 plus funded admission to CPA Congress.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full-time student enrolled in a Bachelor of Commerce who achieved the highest mark in COMLAW 311 Advanced Taxation. As a minimum standard the student must have achieved at least an A- grade. In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the student who achieved the highest mark in the examination.
4. The Prize will be awarded annually by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Commercial Law (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined that there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the donor, can amend these or vary regulations provided there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
