Dean’s Senior Prize in the Postgraduate Diploma in Business

Description

The Prize was established in 2004 by Executive Programmes.

The Prize recognises excellence in the Postgraduate Diploma in Business in Administration, Health Management and Māori Development.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office.
- The Prizes will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Business and Economics

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Dean’s Senior Prize in the Postgraduate Diploma in Business.
2. Up to three Prizes may be awarded annually. The value of each Prize will be $500.
3. The Prizes will be awarded annually to the most academically meritorious students completing the requirements for the Postgraduate Diploma in Business (PGDipBus) in each of the following subjects: Administration, Health Management or Māori Development, taking into account all work over the whole programme. As a minimum standard, the student should have achieved a minimum GPA of 7.00 (equivalent to an A- average). In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the student who achieved the highest aggregate marks in the PGDipBus programme.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Business and Economics (or nominee) in consultation with the Director of the PGDipBus programme.
5. The Prizes may not be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award in any year if in any year there are no candidates of sufficient merit.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize