The main purpose of the Award is to assist final year medical students undertaking an elective that focuses on Pacific Island health.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Award is made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Award will be known as the Dr Newton Wickham CBE Elective Award in Pacific Island Health.
2. One Award will be made each year for a period of one year, and will be of the value of $1,800.
3. The Award will be open to students of the University of Auckland enrolled in Part VI of the Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBChB). The Award will be available for electives undertaken in an area that focuses on Pacific Island health.
4. Selection will be based on academic merit, the relevance of the proposed elective to Pacific Island health and the likely contribution to medical progress that will result.
5. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences (or nominee), the Chair of the MBChB Electives Committee (or nominee) and one representative of the Medical Programme Directorate.
6. The Award will be paid in one instalment in the third week of Semester One.
7. The Award may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the recipient to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Award.

8. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
9. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations (in consultation with the Donor during their lifetime) provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.
10. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 26 September in the year preceding the award.
11. Notes [I]-[III] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. For the purposes of this Award academic merit is assessed as a Scholarships grade point average (GPA) or grade point equivalent (GPE) obtained over the most recent two years of full-time (or equivalent) graded study.*
- II. Payments under the terms of this Award remain tax-free as long as they are used directly for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and to assist the awardee with living costs while studying. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Award.*
- III. Recipients of a Dr Newton Wickham CBE Elective Award in Pacific Island Health will be required to give undertakings that they will comply with the regulations for the Award and will notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. The University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that a recipient of a Dr Newton Wickham CBE Elective Award in Pacific Island Health is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Award and require repayment of the funds received.*
