Description

Elizabeth Michael Uniforms Prize was established in 2011 by the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise the student who has demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities and peer support throughout the Bachelor of Nursing programme, as voted by the completing class.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Nursing

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Elizabeth Michael Uniforms Prize.
2. The Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be made annually to the final year student who has demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities and peer support throughout the Bachelor of Nursing programme, as voted by the completing class.
4. The Prize will be made by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the School of Nursing (or nominee).
5. The Prize may not be granted in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of the School of Nursing shall determine, in consultation with the directors of the Bachelor of Nursing degree, if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

Notes

1. This Prize is presented at the Qualifying and Completion ceremony each year.
