Description

The Scholarship was established in 2011 and is financed by the Faculty of Education and Social Work.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to support and encourage excellence of students who live beyond the Auckland metropolitan area entering their first year of an undergraduate degree in the Faculty of Education and Social Work, at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship shall be known as the Faculty of Education and Social Work Start Smart City of Sails Scholarship.
2. Up to six Scholarships will be awarded annually, each for a period of one year, and will be of the value of up to $5,000 each. In addition to the Scholarship a guaranteed place in university accommodation will be available (see Notes I to II).
3. To take up the Scholarship, recipients must be able to meet programme entry selection criteria which may include the requirements of the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand or the New Zealand Social Workers Registration Board.
4. To take up and be paid the Scholarship, recipients must have been awarded University Entrance and be enrolled and have paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees, for full-time enrolment in the first year of an undergraduate degree (including conjoint degrees) in the Faculty of Education and Social Work, at the University of Auckland.
5. The Scholarship is tenable by students who are citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand, and who are normally resident outside the Auckland metropolitan area (see Note I).

6. The basis of selection will be demonstrated academic excellence based on Level 2 or higher in the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) or an equivalent qualification for school leavers; results of the most recent year of tertiary education for applicants who have completed study at another institution; results from a Foundation Programme; or education and training background for students being considered for entry to the university under Special Admission, personal achievements and all round ability.
7. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Work (or nominee) and two additional members of academic staff of the Faculty (appointed by the Dean).
8. The Scholarship will be paid in two equal instalments: one in the first, and one in the second semester.
9. The Scholarship may not be held concurrently with the Faculty of Education and Social Work Start Smart Merit Scholarship. However, it may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the recipient to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards and grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.
10. The University of Auckland Council has the power to terminate or suspend a Scholarship, if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress of a Scholar from the Dean of Education and Social Work.
11. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
12. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
13. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 1 February and 17 October each year.
14. Notes [I]-[V] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. Living beyond the Auckland metropolitan area is defined as a normal permanent home address in New Zealand which is located either north of Orewa or South of Drury.*
- II. Guaranteed placement in university accommodation is for the first year of study only and will be subject to candidates having formally applied for university accommodation by the applicable accommodation application deadline. Students must apply for university accommodation separately from the Scholarship. The cost of the university accommodation is not included in the Scholarship and will need to be covered by the student.*
- III. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used directly for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and to assist the awardee with living costs while studying. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the termination of the Scholarship.*
- IV. Recipients of a Faculty of Education and Social Work Start Smart City of Sails Scholarship will be required to give undertakings that they will comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and will notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. The University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that a recipient of a Faculty of Education and Social Work Start Smart City of Sails Scholarship is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Scholarship and require repayment from the date of the breach.*
