Gerald Brown Memorial Award

Code:   P871
Faculty:   Business and Economics
Applicable study:   Postgraduate study in Property
Closing date:   By nomination
Tenure:   Prize
For:   Prize
Number on offer:   1
Offer rate:   Annually
Value:   $1,000

Description

The Prize was established in 2004 by a donation of funds raised from the Department of Property’s Annual Graduation Dinner. Dr Gerald Brown was an internationally renowned Property academic specialising in the area of Property Finance, he was an author of two books commonly used in the teaching of Property Finance and a mentor of many academics and students. Dr Brown was Head of Department and Professor of the Department of Property at the University of Auckland, 1991 – 1994.

The main purpose of the Prize is to encourage excellence in postgraduate study in the Department of Property.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office.
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Property.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Gerald Brown Memorial Award.
2. The value of the Prize will be $1,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student who, having completed a Bachelor of Property or BProp conjoint, enters postgraduate study in the Department of Property with the highest GPA from their level three BProp courses. (If there is no applicant, the Head of the Department of Property has the authority to present the award to any postgraduate student in Property to assist with their study.)
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Property.
5. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Department of Property shall determine if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.