Greg Everard Memorial Prize for Mooting

Description

This prize was established in 2002 in memory of Greg Everard, barrister, and graduate of the Faculty of Law who died in March 2002.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the judging panel

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Greg Everard Memorial Prize for Moot.
2. The value of the Prize will be $2,500.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the winner of an annual moot competition to be known as the Greg Everard Memorial Moot. Eligibility for and the terms of the competition will be determined each year by the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee). It will be a prerequisite to eligibility that entrants have already participated in one of the Faculty’s moots.
4. The Prize will be awarded by a judging panel that will include the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee) and at least one nominee of the Everard family.
5. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law shall determine, in consultation with the Everard Family if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with the Everard Family provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.