Description

This Prize was established under the will of the late Mr J P Campbell of Auckland, who bequeathed to the University the sum of $500, the income from this sum to be devoted to the provision of a Prize for the student of the University of Auckland annually obtaining the highest marks in the additional law subjects required for the Barristers' Qualification. The Prize is now awarded for the best work in any two final-year elective courses for the LLB or LLB (Hons).

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded annually by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the J P Campbell Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be approximately $500 per annum to be spent on books of scholarly interest.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law, to the student of the University of Auckland who, in the year of award will have completed the examinations for the LLB or LLB (Hons) Degree, and who, during his or her programme of study for that Degree, shall have done the best work in any two final-year elective programmes.
4. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit, in the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty of Law.
5. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law shall determine if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend these regulations, provided there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize. In particular, if the Statutes will, at any time be amended so as to vary the subjects required to complete the qualification for admission as a Barrister, then the University of Auckland Council will amend these regulations correspondingly, so as to provide for the award of the Prize in conformity with the amended statute
