Description

The Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship was established in 2006 through a bequest from the late Jean Constance McCubeary.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to provide assistance to a student who is undertaking studio or practical work in the visual arts, and who is enrolled in their final year of undergraduate study at the University of Auckland. Preference may be given to students who have demonstrated excellence in the visual arts involving animals and birds, according to the donor's wishes.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually for a period of up to one year, and will be of the value of $7,000.
3. The Scholarship may be awarded to a student who has paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees for their final year of enrolment for the Bachelor of Fine Arts or Bachelor of Fine Arts (Honours) at the University of Auckland.
4. The Scholarship is tenable by domestic and international students.
5. The Scholarship will be awarded to the student who presented the portfolio which best demonstrates excellence in the visual arts in the opinion of the Selection Committee, with preference given to candidates with strengths in the visual arts involving animals and birds. (See Note I)
6. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee consisting of the Dean of the Faculty of Creative Arts and Industries (or nominee), Head of the Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee) and the Undergraduate Advisor for Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee).
7. The Scholarship may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the recipient to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.

8. The Scholarship will be paid in one instalment upon award.
9. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
10. The University of Auckland has power to amend or vary these Regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
11. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 30 June in the year of the award.
12. Notes [I]-[III] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. The portfolio is to consist of six examples of work done in the preceding 12 months as digital files collated into a single portrait oriented pdf file, each example with relevant captioning such as title, date, medium and size.*
- II. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and to assist the awardee with living costs while studying. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Scholarship.*
- III. Recipients of a Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship will be required to give undertakings that they will comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and will notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. The University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that a recipient of a Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Scholarship and require repayment of the funds received.*
