Description

The Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship was established in 2006 through a bequest from the late Jean Constance McCubeary. It provides assistance to a student who is undertaking studio or practical work in the visual arts, and who is enrolled in their final year of undergraduate study at the University of Auckland. Preference may be given to students who have demonstrated excellence in the visual arts involving animals and birds, according to the donor's wishes.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee.

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually to a candidate who has paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees for their final year of enrolment for the Bachelor of Fine Arts or Bachelor of Fine Arts (Honours) at the University of Auckland.
3. The Scholarship has a tenure of one year and a value of $5,500.
4. The Scholarship will be awarded to the student who presented the portfolio which best demonstrates excellence in the visual arts in the opinion of the Selection Committee, with preference given to candidates with strengths in the visual arts involving animals and birds. (See Note I)
5. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee consisting of the Dean of the Faculty of Creative Arts and Industries (or nominee), Head of the Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee) and the Undergraduate Advisor for Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee).
6. The Scholarship may be concurrently held with any other award or grant as long as a) the terms of that award or grant permit and b) the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves.
7. The Scholarship's emolument will be paid in one instalment.
8. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.

9. The University of Auckland has power to amend or vary these Regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
10. A Scholarship must normally be taken up in the year for which it is offered.
11. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 30 June in the year of the award.
12. Note [I] below is deemed to be a regulation.

Notes

I. The portfolio is to consist of six A4 colour photocopies of recent work.
