John Mulgan Memorial Prize

Description

The Prize was established in 1949 by the family and friends of the late Lt.Col John Mulgan, for the encouragement of the study of Greek. Greek was chosen partly because Lt. Col Mulgan was particularly interested in it during his university career and partly because Greece was the scene of his brilliant and gallant war service.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the John Mulgan Memorial Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student in Greek at Stage II, III or Honours level who, in the opinion of staff teaching Greek, has demonstrated the highest level of commitment to the study of Greek. As a minimum standard, the student should have a GPA of 7.00 across all courses in Greek. In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the student at the highest level of study (see Notes I to II).
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) in consultation with the Discipline Convenor of Classics and Ancient History. The Prize will not be awarded to the same student more than once, save in exceptional circumstances.
5. A portion of the Prize money will normally be expended in the purchase of works relating to Greek studies.
6. The Prize will not be awarded in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. If at any time by reason in a fall in the number of students taking Greek or for any other reason the Prize in the opinion of the University of Auckland ceases to fulfil its purpose, the University of Auckland Council may transfer the Prize to Latin or English or such other subjects as the University of Auckland Council may determine. The University of Auckland Council may at any time hereafter transfer the Prize back to Greek.
8. The University of Auckland has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

Notes

I. Commitment to the study of Greek will be determined by factors such as the number of courses taken in this subject at undergraduate or postgraduate level, and the level of contribution and engagement in classwork.

II. Courses in Greek II, III and Honours are GREEK 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 300, 301, 302, 305, 310, 707, 709, 714 and 792.
