Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Jonathan Hunt Prize in Politics and International Relations.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full-time undergraduate student majoring in Politics and International Relations who achieved the highest grade point average (GPA) in Politics and International Relations in the year of the award. As a minimum standard, the student must have been enrolled in at least 45 points of Politics and International Relations courses and have achieved a GPA of 7.00 (equivalent to an A- average).
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Social Sciences (or nominee) in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leader of Politics and International Relations (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
