Judith Binney – Te Tomairangi O Te Aroha Prize in Māori History

Description

The Judith Binney – Te Tomairangi o Te Aroha Prize in Māori History was established in 2012 by the Department of History, colleagues, students and alumni as a lasting memorial which will honour the work of the late Professor Dame Judith Binney. This Prize aims to encourage and reward student achievement in, and commitment to, Māori history at the undergraduate level.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of History.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Judith Binney – Te Tomairangi o Te Aroha Prize in Māori History.
2. The Prize will be of the value of $450.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to an undergraduate student majoring in History who has achieved the highest GPA across two or more courses at any level, relating to the study of Māori history.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of History.
5. The Prize will not be awarded in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Department of History shall determine, in consultation with the Dean of Arts, if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations in conjunction with the Head of the Department of History, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.