Lamson Prize in Child Language and Literacy

Description

The Prize was established in 1999 and is financed from a gift made by a former student and staff member of the University of Auckland. The main purpose of the Prize is to reward excellence in the study of child language and literacy and to encourage interest in research with a focus on linguistics and on the language and literacy needs of children in New Zealand and the near Pacific.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Work.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Lamson Prize in Child Language and Literacy.
2. The value of the Prize will be $400.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to a full-time student of the University of Auckland who has shown distinguished performance in an advanced course associated with language learning or literacy offered in the Faculty of Education and Social Work, for example: EDPROFST 701, 703, 705 and 707.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Work.
5. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Work shall determine if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.