Margaret Tudor South Postgraduate Scholarship in Chinese

Description

The Scholarship was established in 2018 and is funded by a bequest from Margaret Tudor South.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to encourage and support a student enrolled in a Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma in Arts, Master of Arts or Master of Literature majoring in Chinese or Asian Studies with a Chinese focus, in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the Margaret Tudor South Postgraduate Scholarship in Chinese.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually, for a period of up to one year and will be of the value of up to $5,000. Payments and tenure will be pro-rated for part-time students.
3. The Scholarship may be awarded to students who meet all the requirements of these regulations and enrol at the University of Auckland in a Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma in Arts, Master of Arts or Master of Literature degree, majoring in Chinese or Asian Studies with a Chinese focus.
4. The Scholarship is tenable by students who are citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
5. The basis of selection will be academic merit as assessed by the grade point average (GPA) or grade point equivalent (GPE) calculated over the most recent qualifying programme and financial need. Successful applicants will have a minimum GPA/GPE of 7.00 (6.50 for Māori or Pacific candidates) in their most recent qualifying programme for study (see Notes I-II).
6. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Associate Dean (Postgraduate) from the Faculty of Arts (or nominee), the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) and the Discipline Convenor of Chinese (or nominee).

7. Payment will be made in two equal lump sums in Semester One and Semester Two. Payment will be pro-rated for part-time students.

8. The Margaret Tudor South Postgraduate Scholarship in Chinese may be held with any other scholarship, award or grant where the Regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and where the University of Auckland Council so approves.

9. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the donor, has the power to terminate or suspend a Scholarship if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress of a Scholar from the Associate Dean (Postgraduate) of the Faculty of Arts.

10. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.

11. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 31 January in the year of the award.

Notes

I. The most recent qualifying programme is defined as the most recently completed programme of study that qualifies the applicant for entry to the postgraduate programme for which they are applying.

II. Financial need will be determined by a range of factors including eligibility for a StudyLink Student Allowance, and personal and financial circumstances.

III. Recipients of a Margaret Tudor South Postgraduate Scholarship in Chinese will be required to give undertakings that they will comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and will notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment, employment or funding status.

IV. These regulations are subject to Senate and Council approval.
