Northey Prize in Immigration and Refugee Law

Description

The Prize was established in 2015 and is given in honour of Professor Northey by a grateful alumnus.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the student achieving the best grade in Immigration and Refugee Law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Northey Prize in Immigration and Refugee Law.
2. The Prize will be $1,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full-time student achieving the highest grade in LAW PUBL 424 Immigration and Refugee Law, LAW PUBL 443 Refugee Law or LAW PUBL 444 Immigration Law. In the event of a tie, the student achieving the highest mark in LAW PUBL 424, LAW PUBL 443 or LAW PUBL 444 will be awarded the Prize. As a minimum standard, the student must receive an A- grade.
4. In the event that LAW PUBL 443 and LAW PUBL 444 are taught in the same year, the Prize may be shared.
5. The Prizes will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
6. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to make an award in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit, and the University of Auckland Council may make an additional award in the subsequent year.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
