Description

The Professor Terry Sturm Scholarship in New Zealand and Australian Literature was established in 2009 to encourage research in New Zealand and Australian Literature at the University of Auckland. The Scholarship has been made possible through the generosity of the family of Professor Terry Sturm and the Faculty of Arts.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee.

Regulations

1. The Scholarship shall be known as the Professor Terry Sturm Scholarship in New Zealand and Australian Literature.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually, for a period of one year, and will be of the value of $1,250.
3. The Scholarship will be awarded to a student who has paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees, for full-time enrolment in a Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma in Arts, Master of Arts or PhD in English, with a specialisation in New Zealand or Australian literature.
4. The basis of selection will be academic merit and the quality and nature of the applicant's statement of research intent.
5. The Scholarship will be awarded upon the recommendation of a committee comprising the Dean of Arts (or nominee), the Head of English (or nominee) and at least one other member of the Department of English's Scholarships Committee.
6. The Scholarship's emolument will be paid in one instalment.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations (in consultation with the Head of English) provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
8. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 4 April in the year of the award.
