Richard Anschutz Prize for Stage I Political Philosophy

Description

The prize was established in 2008 and is financed by a donation from the family of the late Richard Paul Anschutz, who was Professor of Philosophy from 1956-1961.

The purpose of the Prize is to encourage study in political philosophy at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Philosophy.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Richard Anschutz Prize for Stage I Political Philosophy.
2. The value of the Prize will be $100.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the student who achieves the highest mark in PHIL 103 Freedom, Rights and Justice.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Philosophy.
5. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Department of Philosophy shall determine, in consultation with the Donor, if the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.