Rive Memorial Scholarship

Description

This Scholarship was established in 1979 as a result of a public subscription in memory of the late Professor Thomas Norman Rive, who was a member of the Music School from 1945 to 1978. He was appointed to a Personal Chair in Music in 1974, and on several occasions was Acting Head of School, a position he held at the time of his death in February 1978.

Selection process

- No application required
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music on the recommendation of the Selection Committee.

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the Rive Memorial Scholarship.
2. The annual value of the Scholarship will be $750.
3. The Scholarship will be tenable for one year.
4. The award will be made for the encouragement of postgraduate study in Music and shall be open to students who enrol and pay the fees, or arrange to pay the fees, for a Bachelor (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma, Masters or Doctoral degree in the School of Music at the University of Auckland.
5. The University of Auckland Council will award one Scholarship each year after receiving a recommendation from the Head of the School of Music (or nominee), who will consider the whole of the candidate’s University work and his or her general contribution to the life of the University; and with discretion, take into account the financial circumstances of the candidate.
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there are no candidates of sufficient merit. If an award is not made in any one year an additional award may be made in a later year or the income added to the capital fund.
7. The emoluments of the Scholarship will be paid in a lump sum upon award.
8. The Scholarship will be held at the University of Auckland, or, at the discretion of the University of Auckland Council.
on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music, at any other New Zealand university where the student is enrolled for postgraduate study in Music.

9. The University of Auckland Council may suspend payment of the emoluments or may cancel the Scholarship if it receives from the Head of the School of Music an unfavourable report on the progress of the recipient.

10. The Scholarship is tenable concurrently with any other Scholarship, bursary, or award where the regulations of that Scholarship, bursary, or award do not preclude co-tenure.

11. A student, on application, may be permitted to hold a Scholarship for more than one year provided they are enrolled and have paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees, for a postgraduate programme in Music and maintains a satisfactory rate of progress and standard of performance.

12. The University of Auckland Council may vary the conditions of the Scholarship from time to time on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music but so that there is no departure from the purpose of the fund.
