Description

The Award was established in 2016 and is funded by The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust.

The main purpose of the Award is to assist women students who have successfully completed the University of Auckland Tertiary Foundation Certificate to undertake full-time study in an undergraduate degree programme at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust assesses the applications
- The Award is made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust

Regulations

1. The Award shall be known as The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust Jane Bellamy and Elizabeth Godfrey Foundation Award.
2. Two Awards will be made annually, each for a period of up to three years, and will be of the value of up to $6,000 per annum each.
3. To take up and be paid the Award, candidates must have successfully completed the University of Auckland Tertiary Foundation Certificate and have enrolled and paid the fees, or have arranged to pay the fees, for full-time enrolment in an undergraduate degree programme at the University of Auckland in the following year. To maintain the Awards the recipients must attain a grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.00 (equivalent to a C+ average) in each semester of study (see Note IV).

4. The Award is tenable by women students who are citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
5. The basis of selection will be the applicant's academic achievement during the Foundation Course (see Note I), demonstrated financial need, a personal statement outlining the applicant's aspirations for the future and any special circumstances for consideration (see Notes II and III).
6. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust.
7. The Award will be paid in two equal lump sum instalments: one in the first, and one in the second semester of eligible study (see Note V).
8. The Award may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant of equal or lesser value as long as a) the terms of that scholarship, award or grant permit and b) the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves.
9. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the Donor, has the power to terminate or suspend an Award if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress of a Scholar from the relevant Head of School or Head of Department.
10. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
11. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.
12. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 19 February in the year of the award.
13. Notes [I]-[VIII] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. For the purpose of assessing applicants for this Award, academic achievement is assessed by the GPA obtained over the applicant's study in the Tertiary Foundation Certificate.*
- II. Financial need will be determined by a range of factors including previous or current eligibility for a StudyLink Student Allowance, and personal and financial circumstances.*
- III. Special circumstances may include personal or family circumstances the applicant deems relevant to their application.*
- IV. For the purpose of this Award the recipient's grade point average (GPA) is based on all courses they undertake in each semester of study. A GPA of 3.00 is equivalent to a C+ average.*
- V. Failure to complete any semester of study will require the recipient to refund that semester's payment to The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust. Recipients who are unable to complete their studies in any semester due to compelling circumstances must apply in writing to the Manager of the Scholarships Office for special consideration before the end of the examination period for that semester.*
- VI. Recipients of the Award will be required to submit a brief report to the Scholarships Office at the end of each year of study.*
- VII. Payments under the terms of this Award remain tax-free as long as they are used directly for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Award.*
- VIII. Recipients of The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust Jane Bellamy and Elizabeth Godfrey Foundation Award will be required to give undertakings that they will comply with the regulations for the Award and will notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. The University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that a recipient of The Kate Edger Educational Charitable Trust Jane Bellamy and Elizabeth Godfrey Foundation Award is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Award and require repayment of the funds received from the date of the breach.*
