Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Werner Droescher Prize in German Linguistics.
2. The value of the Prize will be $150.
3. The Prize will normally be expended in the purchase of works of, or about, German studies, particularly German language and linguistics.
4. The Prize will be awarded each year to the student who, in the opinion of the examiners, has shown the greatest distinction in German linguistics at any level. The recipient will normally be expected to do an MA in German, in Linguistics, or in Languages and Literatures with German as one language in a subsequent year.
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Disciplinary Area together with the relevant Subject Co-ordinator.
6. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in any year if in that year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Disciplinary Area will determine if the Prize may be shared.
8. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
