Dear {FIRST_NAME},

There is a lot to be proud of this month, with University of Auckland graduates and staff well represented at the Auckland International Film Festival and on the Montana New Zealand Book Awards shortlist. Of course, we'd also like to congratulate final year student Anthony Boric on his recent All Blacks selection. Read on for more details of all these achievements and all the latest alumni news.

Student selected as All Black
Final-year Civil Engineering student Anthony Boric has been selected to play for the All Blacks. The 23-year-old found out he was in the All Blacks squad on 1 June when he heard his name read out on the radio.
Read the full story on the Alumni & Friends website.

Whangarei Alumni & Friends Reception - 6 August
Next month, we are heading up to Northland for our inaugural Alumni & Friends reception to continue our theme of celebrating alumni and our 125th jubilee. The reception will feature Distinguished Alumna Lynette Stewart and a performance by the NZ Trio.
Get the event details.

Honorary doctorates for illustrious pair
Honorary doctorates have been presented to Jenny Gibbs, a major benefactor and patron of the arts, and to Professor Lord Robert Winston, a prominent British medical scientist and television presenter.

Read more on the Alumni & Friends website.

Hood Fellowships awarded

The Hood Fellowships, established in honour of former Vice-Chancellor Dr John Hood and generously supported with major funding from the Lion Foundation, allow for a rich sharing and exchange of academic expertise from all over the world.

In the latest round seven Hood Fellowships have been awarded, one to an outgoing academic and six to visiting scholars.

Read more on the Alumni & Friends website.

PM launches marine centre campaign

On 21 June, the Rt Hon Helen Clark launched a national and international campaign to raise funds to develop a South Pacific Centre for Marine Science (SPCMS), and announced a gift of $4.5 million from the Edith Winstone Blackwell Trust. Read more on the Alumni & Friends website.

University boasts record entries at International Film Festival

A record five films from The University of Auckland’s Graduate Programme in Screen Production will be featured in next month’s 40th Auckland International Film Festival. Apron Strings (pictured) will open the festival, where it will also make its world premiere. The feature film was written by FTVMS Screen Production Senior Lecturer Shuchi Kothari and Dianne Taylor, a graduate of and part-time tutor in the department. Read more.

Auckland University Blues Awards

Get the 15% alumni discount

Aotearoa NZ Sound Archive, from which the recordings of the poets are drawn and which is partly held at The University of Auckland

Latest headlines

- 2 July
  - SPIES hits the road in Hamilton

- 1 July
  - University of Auckland Arts graduate wins Fulbright

- 1 July
  - Girls only day at the Faculty of Engineering

- 30 June
  - Experts illuminating topical issues

- 27 June
  - Engineering students design infrastructure in Vanuatu

- 26 June
  - Elam student uses Facebook, global injustice to create message of hope

- 25 June
  - Leading Australian academic to be new Business School Dean

- 19 June
  - Timing of puberty linked to mother’s diet during pregnancy

- 19 June
  - Do muscles in pain behave normally?

In every issue

- WANT TO SHARE THE NEWS?
  - Send this message to a friend

- HAVE YOU MOVED?
  - Update your details if they have changed
A University of Auckland Blue is the highest cultural or sporting accolade that can be attained at university level.

In this 125th Jubilee year, the organisers are actively seeking to increase the number of applicants. Completed nomination forms need to be received by August 1st.

Read more and download a nomination form on the AUSA website

Informal NYC get together

New York Volunteer Alumni Coordinator, Rosena Sammi and Alumni Relations Manager, Amanda Lyne, would like to invite you an informal get-together in New York on 16 July.

The event will take place at PUBLIC in the back lounge.

Read more on the Alumni & Friends website.

University well represented in Montana NZ Book Awards shortlist

A book by a University of Auckland Film, Television and Media Studies professor has been selected as a finalist in the Montana New Zealand Book Awards. On the same shortlist, are five Auckland University Press books, more than any other publisher. Read about the Montana Awards here. Read about the AUP discount for alumni.

Alumni & Friends reception in Sydney

There is still time to register for the Sydney Alumni and Friends reception being held at the MCA on 24 July featuring Emeritus Professor Carrick Chambers and The Blackbird Strings.

Read more and RSVP on the Alumni & Friends website.

CK Stead to participate in Sylvia Ashton-Warner Conference

As part of the International Sylvia Ashton-Warner Conference in August, University of Auckland Emeritus Professor of English CK Stead will interview New York-City-based Robert Gottlieb of Knopf Publishing. Described by the Wall Street Journal as "the most influential book editor in the world", Robert Gottlieb was Sylvia's publisher and has run two of America's most prestigious publishing companies, Simon & Schuster and Alfred A Knopf. The interview will take place via satellite from the United States.

For a full list of keynote speakers, the conference programme and to register go to http://www.eenz.com/sa-w08

Until next month,

The Alumni Relations Team
The University of Auckland
www.alumni.auckland.ac.nz

SUBSCRIPTION DETAILS
This email was sent to: {EMAIL_ADDR}.
To change your preferred email address, please update your contact details.
If you don’t want to receive @auckland in the future, please unsubscribe here.
If you don’t want to receive emails from the University in future, and would like your email address removed from our database, please unsubscribe here.