Win a double pass to Billy Elliot the Musical

Seen the movie? Now you have a chance to win a double pass to enjoy the live stage version on 26 November. ASB presents the Auckland Theatre Company production of Billy Elliot the Musical, the story of a boy's struggle against the odds to make his dream come true. Based on the smash-hit movie, Billy Elliot the Musical is a heartfelt story, with book and lyrics written by Lee Hall and music by Elton John.

Want to improve your wellbeing in the workplace?

In a world of email obsessions, streams of social media and other digital distractions, how do we find connective ‘flow’ and avoid hyper-connectivity? Alumni volunteers from anywhere in the world are wanted for a new research project to help organisations improve the wellbeing of their staff.
Volunteer now and go into the draw to win an iPhone 7.

Heartfelt thanks from alumni scholars

Each year, hundreds of University of Auckland alumni and friends donate generously to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. Your support provides real and immediate support to talented undergraduate students who, because of financial hardship, may not otherwise be able to undertake a university degree.

310 students have been awarded this special scholarship since 1997. Here are just some of the lives you have changed.

Has the glass ceiling really been cracked?

Female students outnumber male students in most disciplines in tertiary education. Yet women are still underrepresented in the top jobs in most sectors – including in tertiary education.

In the latest issue of Ingenio magazine, three of our academics give their views. You can join the conversation on the Ingenio website.

Can we stop wasting talent?

For alumna Rez Gardi, scholarship support made an immeasurable difference to her studies in Law and Arts. Rez was born in a refugee camp in Pakistan and moved to New Zealand when she was six years old.
