Join our Tuākana community

Tuākana is a University-wide learning community that enhances the academic success of our Māori and Pacific students. Most of the University’s Māori and Pacific students engage with Tuākana. The facilties have dedicated staff and meeting spaces to support our Māori and Pacific students, and they develop their own programmes to complement the teaching and learning environment. Tuākana offers small-group learning, whakahaua and teaching, wānanga, face-to-face meetings and workshops. These help connect Māori and Pacific students with senior Māori and Pacific students (tuākana), academic teaching staff, and key people across the University.

How do I get accepted to the University of Auckland?
To study at the University of Auckland you must have a University Entrance qualification and be selected into a programme.

How your rank score is calculated
You will be allocated a rank score based on your best 80 credits at Level 3 or higher over a maximum of five approved subjects, weighted by the level of achievement attained in each set of credits. If you achieve fewer than 80 credits, the rank score will be based on those credits you have gained at Level 3 over a maximum of five approved subjects and weighted by the level of achievement.
- The rank score will be calculated by awarding the following points for up to 24 credits in each approved subject taken at Level 3. The maximum rank score is 320.

For compulsory or required subjects:
- Students must have obtained:
- Credits obtained in any required subjects do not have to be among the best 80 credits used for ranking purposes.
- You are strongly encouraged to take achievement standards as preparation for University study.

For more information visit www.auckland.ac.nz/undergraduate-prospectus.
What is a conjoint degree?

You can earn a conjoint degree by studying for two different degrees at the same time. When you complete the conjoint degree, you will have gained two qualifications faster than if you studied them individually.

A conjoint degree can give you a distinct advantage in the job market. It’s also the opportunity to mix two different areas of interest, so you don’t have to give up one for the other.

For example:
- A Bachelor of Engineering with a Bachelor of Laws
- A Bachelor of Commerce with a Bachelor of Science
- A Bachelor of Health Sciences with a Bachelor of Arts

If you are applying for a conjoint programme, you must meet the admission and selection requirement for both programmes of study. Higher rank scores will be required.

Academic English Language Requirement (AELR)

You must meet the AELR if you are admitted to a University of Auckland bachelor’s degree programme and you are:

- A domestic student
- An international student applying on the basis of a New Zealand secondary school qualification
- An international student applying on the basis of results at another New Zealand tertiary institution

How do I meet the Academic English Language Requirement?

The AELR may be met through your entry qualification or through satisfactory completion of an approved course in your first 12 months of study.

Meeting the Requirement through your entrance qualification

School qualifications

For those applying on the basis of NCEA results: You will meet the Requirement if you have gained the University Entrance Literacy Standard and a minimum of 17 credits in English at Level 2 and/or 3.

For those applying on the basis of CIE results: You will meet the Requirement if you have gained the University Entrance Literacy Standard and are in receipt of 26 points.

For those applying on the basis of International Baccalaureate (IB) results:

- ATAR and have achieved an acceptable result in DELNA testing.
- Achieved the AELR through NCEA, CIE or IB qualifications as outlined above, or
- Satisfied the AELR through DELNA testing.

Visit us on pages 10–11 for more information regarding DELNA. Please see www.delnauauckland.ac.nz for details.

What if I don’t get the guaranteed rank score needed for the programme I applied to?

If you don’t get the guaranteed rank score you could apply for a place under the University’s Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes (UTAS). Find out more about UTAS on pages 10–11. To learn more about the University’s Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes (UTAS).

Bachelor of Engineering (Honours), Civil Engineering, 2013

Final year, Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), Civil and Environmental Engineering

As a child, when we would drive through Waikato or the Bay of Plenty on our way to visit whānau, we would often pass certain bridges, structures and buildings that my dad had worked on as an engineer, which was just the coolest thing to me. So ever since a young age I have been drawn to building, designing, or solving problems, with the hope that I would be able to help our communities just like my dad did.

I credit my academic success to the support I’ve received from my whānau and networks at the University of Auckland. My whānau are the foundation underpinning everything I do – especially when it comes to my education. The support networks for our Māori and Pacific Engineering students – specifically, SPIES and Tuākana – have become my whānau away from home, providing support to achieve in a discipline where Māori and Pacific are under-represented.

My hope for the future is that pursuing higher education isn’t something special; rather, it is considered a normal part of daily life. As Māori, we come from a long line of navigators, engineers, thinkers and scientists. Academic success is not a new concept – it is the root of who we are as Māori. Karawhiua!
Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes (UTAS)

UTAS is the University’s Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes for eligible Māori and applicants from some equity groups. UTAS reserves a number of places in our undergraduate programmes for applicants who have met the University Entrance (UE) standard but have not yet met the guaranteed entry score for the programme of their choice. To be eligible for admission via UTAS, applicants will be required to meet the eligibility criteria as set out in the University’s UTAS Policy and Guidelines and as specified by each faculty. You must already have applied for your programme.

What support is available for UTAS students?
Our University provides a range of support for students who are admitted through UTAS, including:
- Orientation
- Help with course selection
- pastoral support
- Academic tutorials
- Tuakana Learning Community for Māori and Pacific students
- Student Disability Services for students with disabilities

The University of Auckland has taken all steps to ensure that the information on these pages is correct but please note that changes may occur. For the most up to date information call 0800 61 62 63 or visit www.auckland.ac.nz/utas

The UTAS Policy is designed to ensure that the University of Auckland provides equal educational opportunities to all eligible students who have the potential to participate and succeed at our world-ranked University. UTAS students are expected to meet the same high academic standards as all other undergraduate students at the University.

UTAS places are available to eligible:
- Māori applicants
- Pacific applicants
- Applicants with disabilities
- Applicants from low socio-economic backgrounds (for the purposes of UTAS, school leavers from decile 1–3 schools)
- Applicants who have themselves or whose parents/primary guardian(s) have been granted refuge in New Zealand.

UTAS is not available to international students.

* UTAS applicants from low socio-economic backgrounds must be school leavers.

Manuele Teofilo
Valimoso, Samoa
Bachelor of Human Services (BHSc)*, expected to complete in 2018

Facing the challenges of living with cerebral palsy is one of the main reasons I chose to study at the University of Auckland.

I have learned to manage the frustration of not always being able to do the things I want to, and to recognise that some people find my speech impairment a barrier to connecting with me. I know many other people with disabilities face similar or more complex struggles than I do. I believe we all have one opportunity at living life. Before enrolling at the University I studied Christian theology at Bible College. During my second year, I realised I wanted to advocate for people with disabilities. I was impressed by the University’s response to my enquiries. They suggested I enrol in the Bachelor of Human Services programme, which offers a major in disability.

As a UTAS student, I receive support from Student Disability Services, including having a note-taker in lectures. I have also completed a DELNA test and a targeted learning session, which have helped improve how I study and write assignments.

When I graduate, I want to work with Pasifika people with disabilities.

Dexter Rapana
Te Arawa, Ngāti Tūwharetoa
Conjoint Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws (BA/LLB), expected to complete in 2019

Born and raised in Rotorua, I come from a family of 11 and am the first in my whānau to attend university. My degree will enable me to give back to my whānau, marae and iwi.

UTAS has helped me achieve my academic goals by giving me access to workshops and learning centres for Māori, facilitated by Māori. I am also a member of Te Rākau Tūwharetoa, the Māori Law Students Association, and Māori Students Association. Being part of these groups helps me feel connected to my whānau and marae. They are my home away from home.

I have been awarded various grants and scholarships from my marae, hapū and iwi. To reciprocate, I help out regularly at my marae and whānau trust. When I graduate I aspire to become a Māori Land Court Judge.
Honouring our Māori alumni

We acknowledge and value the hard work of our Māori alumni, past and present. You enhance our lives by sharing your knowledge, skills and wisdom for the betterment of te iwi Māori.

Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws (Honours) (BA/LLB (Hons)), 2011

My Māoritanga is the cornerstone of my being. Everything that I do is to give back to my whānau, hapū and iwi.

I was raised by my parents and grandparents in a small, rural Māori community on Ataia (Great Barrier Island). While my papakāinga is my poiutokomanawa, the University of Auckland became my second home and whānau. As a student, my passion for learning was nourished by the incredible Māori Academic Programme at the Law School and by Te Tūkia Arts. Supported by my fellow Māori students and the remarkable Māori staff, I found my voice at University, something for which I will always be grateful.

Crucially, my time at the University also taught me the importance of questioning the status quo and of working outside my comfort zone. As a result, I never felt out of my depth while earning a Master of Laws as a Fulbright Scholar at Harvard Law School in the United States. Today, the legal skills I gained at University, along with my Māoritanga, give me a unique and valued perspective in my current role at WIPO.

These experiences are powerful reminders of the value and importance of a Te Ao Māori perspective.

Whaia te ikirangi? Kī ki te tuhoe koe me he maunga te iti kahurangi ki te tuohu koe me he maunga teitei – when you dare to dream and chase your goals, you will be surprised at what you can achieve!

Māori student groups

The University’s Māori student groups offer cultural and social communities of support in various areas around campus.

Ngā Taura Māori (NTM)

NTM is the Māori Students Association. We support and provide services to Māori students by offering educational, cultural, social and political events that foster a Te Ao Māori within the University. Find us in our common room, Hinaahu, located on the top floor of the Student Union Building.

Final year, conjoint Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws (BA/LLB)

My older brother, Cameron, enrolled at the University of Auckland before I did. Through his experiences, I was exposed to the wide array of support here for Māori students, both academically – in the form of such programmes as Tuakana – and culturally, through groups such as NTM and TRT. I chose to study here because I knew I would be surrounded by like-minded and supportive people.

My young daughter, Dhru (pictured with me on the cover), is my biggest inspiration to achieve academically. By studying Law I will gain tools to help build a better future for my daughter.

My whānau have been instrumental in my journey through tertiary education, going above and beyond to support me to succeed. I have also shared this journey with many friends who have provided encouragement over the years.

While I have benefited from the various support programmes offered by the University, I have also had the privilege of giving back, as a mentor on Whāia te iti kahurangi, and by attending multiple haerenga. We visit various schools around Aotearoa to encourage students to follow their dreams of earning a tertiary qualification.
Other pathways to study

We have various alternative pathways to bridge the gap between secondary school and the University of Auckland.

UniBound – Academic Enrichment Programme

This programme is designed for Māori and Pacific students who wish to ease their transition into Higher education. It is designed to support student success in their chosen field of study. UniBound Summer is a free five-week academic enrichment programme that will take place from January to February 2019. Registration is open for all Māori and Pacific students who have shown interest, or applied already, for a University of Auckland programme. Students who have not yet formally applied to the University will receive guidance and assistance in doing so.

UniBound Summer runs from 8am–4pm Monday to Friday, with a set field trip or activity for students on Saturdays in a workshop format, is designed to prepare you for Mathematics Preparation for University NSMAT 1.6.

Students applying for NSMAT courses will be required to sit a short assessment. Results from this assessment will be used to determine a placement level for students. The University of Auckland and elsewhere.

- New Start General NSGEN 47 will prepare you for an undergraduate degree at the University of Auckland. 1 year $20,000 comprising a guaranteed place in University of Auckland catered accommodation and two lump sum payments.

Scholarships and financial assistance

The University of Auckland is pleased to offer a number of scholarships for Māori and Pacific students. There are also private, government and university scholarships available. See the table below for general school level scholarships and awards.

It is important to note that the initial basis of selection for the University’s school level scholarships will be academic ability based on results at level 2 or higher in NCEA or an equivalent qualification. Therefore, you should aim for as many Merit and Excellence credits as possible in Year 11 for applicants for the University of Auckland Māori Academic Excellence Scholarships and the University of Auckland Pacific Academic Excellence Scholarships.

Scholarships are assessed on a set of criteria that recognizes and rewards exceptional academic performance, combined with outstanding sporting, artistic, cultural and/or leadership achievements.

The University of Auckland Academic Potential Scholarships recognize academic achievement in studies who may experience barriers to accessing University education. These include whether they are a demonstrable financial need, attended a low-decile school, are from a refugee background, have a disability, are from a rural area, or will be the first of their immediate family to attend University.

We have a variety of support services to help you. These range from study spaces, mentors and scholarships to advisers and counsellors dedicated to helping our Māori students.

Libraries and Learning Services

Māori and Pacific Librarians

The Māori and Pacific Librarians are based on Level 1, Room 130-134 of the General Library. We have an open door policy and provide support services to the Māori and Pacific communities, as well as academic/professional staff and students who conduct Māori and/or Pacific research. Contact us if you have any questions about locating information, using library resources, referencing and more. We can also connect you with the staff at the Archive of Māori and Pacific Music to access more than 10,000 hours of Māori and Pacific recordings. The Māori and Pacific Librarians apply the principles of whānauaotanga, aroha, tautau, kia kāloaloa and aroha when responding to any information request received.

I chose to study at the University of Auckland because of the amazing scholarships. I was fortunate to be awarded a Chancellor’s Award for Top Māori and Pacific Scholars (CATS), as well as a scholarship to live in the Halls of Residence. I also wanted to challenge myself. Coming from a predominantly Māori town, I knew I would grow from my experiences living in a big city.

I credit my friends and whānau for my achievements at University. While I was completing my degree, my mother and aunty both completed a Master in Business and Administration with Waikato/Tainui. Their achievements showed how individuals can contribute to the betterment of the wider whānau and hapū.

Tuatahi, he Māori ahau. Tuarua, he wahine ahau. My Māori identity is also hugely significant, and I maintained strong cultural involvements at University, joining NTM and TRT, as well as maintaining my membership with my kapa haka rōpū back in Rotorua. I was also privileged to work with different initiatives to give back to the Māori community, including Tuākana Arts and the Te Amorangi Programme. Additionally, I was given the opportunity to go back to my high school, Rotorua Girls’, and speak to the students about attending university, as well as offering my services as a teacher aid.

Today, my qualifications represent the values and beliefs of my whānau. It is something for them to be proud of, and hopefully, my University achievements will encourage and inspire my wider whānau to follow in their own passions, career pathways, and other aspirations.
Celebrating Our Village, Our Kāinga

Congratulations to all our 2017 Māori graduates! You have worked exceptionally hard to reach this milestone. We are proud of your achievements and we join with your whānau, hapū, iwi and communities to celebrate your success!

As a Māori woman at the University of Auckland, I have had many opportunities to contribute to the betterment of our people, while representing all my tupuna who have gone before me.

I grew up in a small Taranaki town called Waitara. I was fortunate enough to be the last Dux to graduate from Turakina Māori Girls College.

During my time at the University I have had many opportunities to strive for and achieve excellence; I have had roles as a Māori student mentor/ambassador and an Inside Word student blogger; and I have been blessed with receiving what is now called a University of Auckland Top Achiever Scholarship.

I currently work as a Residential Adviser in the Halls of Residence. I have the opportunity to create an environment that encourages Māori values and embodies whakawhanaungatanga and manākitanga.

In 2018 I will be based at the University of Saint Andrews, Scotland, as part of the 360 International programme. The University has made all of this possible for me.

I will always hold close to me who I am and where I come from. I am particularly motivated to achieve academically so I can one day give back to my whānau, hapū and iwi.

STEAM Ahead
Tuesday 3 July
STEAM Ahead includes presentations about Science, Technology, Engineering, Architecture and Medicine. A one-day interactive programme for Māori and Pacific Year 13 students who have an interest or strength in these subjects.

Whāia te Pae Tawhiti (WTPT)
Thursday 23 August – Sunday 26 August
A Year 13 on-campus experience programme for regional Māori students who aspire to attend the University of Auckland in 2019.

BEAMS
Wednesday 21 – Tuesday 27 November
BEAMS offers workshops focused on Business, Engineering, Architecture, Medicine and Science. This faculty-driven programme is interactive and focuses on encouraging Māori and Pacific Year 10 students with an interest in these subjects.

Kei A Tātou Te Ihi (KATTI)
KATTI stands for Kei A Tātou Te Ihi, with programmes from Year 10 – 13. It’s a collaborative kaupapa for Māori secondary school students, delivered by tertiary Māori Liaison Officers from other tertiary institutions in Auckland. Talk to your Careers Adviser for more information and dates.

It’s time to apply

So, you’ve made your decision on what you want to study, and now it’s time to apply. What do you need to do? It’s a two-step process to apply for and enrol in your chosen programme.

First you need to apply
Go to www.apply.auckland.ac.nz and complete the Application for Admission. If you haven’t already, you’ll be asked to sign-up for a new account. It’s easy, and you’ll be under way in making your application.

Next you will receive an acknowledgement email asking you to provide certified documents (and in some cases to complete other requirements) before your application can be assessed.

Remember, you can apply for more than one programme. We’ll be assessing your application, and you can check your application status online at any time. Be patient though – documents can take 3-4 weeks to process during peak admission periods. Some of your documents might take longer to process than others, despite being sent in at the same time.

If your application is successful, we’ll email you an offer – normally from mid-January.

To accept or decline this offer, log onto www.apply.auckland.ac.nz

Next you need to enrol
Once you’ve accepted an offer of place in a programme, you can enrol in a course. If you need some help with the enrolment process, take an online tutorial. www.auckland.ac.nz/onlineenrol

Some late applications may be accepted after 2018 school results are received. It is advisable, however, to apply for all programmes that you might wish to enrol in before the published closing date. Multiple applications are acceptable and all applications will be considered when 2018 academic results are available.

*For some programmes, you may be required to submit supplementary information (e.g., a portfolio of work, referee reports, an online form) or to attend an interview/audition.
If you are not offered a place in the programme(s) of your choice, you will receive an email outlining alternative options. Your first offer is a place dependent on two things: your admission to the University (which for school leavers may depend on your final school results) and your assessment by the relevant faculty.
