Service Division Plan 2016 - 18
The Equity Office - Te Ara Tautika
Section 1a: Overview

Current state

The Equity Office contributes to the University of Auckland being a safe, inclusive and equitable place to study and work.

The Equity Office’s equity leadership enhances the University’s reputation, helps attract, retain and support talented people and contributes to New Zealanders’ economic and social wellbeing. The PVCE provides strategic equity leadership and advises Council and the VC on fulfilling statutory and compliance obligations.

Equity Office activities include equity governance, strategy, policy, programmes, projects, resources, training, monitoring and reporting, maintaining networks and providing advice. Leadership and coordination of the Tuākana Learning Community and the UTAS CoI and managing Student Disability Services are key functions.

The Equity Office uses robust evidence and strong relationships with those engaged in research, teaching and learning to be effective.

The Equity Office’s relationship with the Office of the PVCM and the Rūnanga support the University to meet its commitment to the Treaty of Waitangi. The relationship with the DPS&E and the Centre for Pacific Studies helps advance priorities for Pacific staff and students.

Further key relationships are with SLT, DVC Academic, DVC Strategic Engagement, the Directors of Administration and HR; Equity Leadership Committee, Faculties, SPO, Student Information and Marketing Services, Central Communications, Campus Life, Academic Services, the Scholarships Office, L&LS, CDES and Property Services.

Engagement with students is via AUSA, Ngā Tauira Māori, AUPISA, PGSA, the Students from Refugee Backgrounds Advisory Committee, the Student Consultative Committee, faculty student groups, the LGBTI Network, TransonCampus, and student membership of the Equity Leadership and Faculty Equity Chairs’ Committees.

Key student equity priorities are to increase recruitment, retention and success of Māori and equity group students. Key staff equity priorities include promoting a fair and equitable work environment and equitable employment processes and outcomes.

Future state

The new Equity Leadership Committee provides an opportunity to advance equity accountability and implementation across faculties and service divisions.

The Equity Office will further enhance its communications to increase awareness of equity information, resources and support.
Achieving key objectives that will support Faculties and Service Divisions to achieve the University’s Strategic Plan

Key objective 1:
Enhance communications to contribute to a Safe, Inclusive and Equitable University environment

Significant achievements and major challenges:

- The Equity Office website is a comprehensive resource. Online traffic has increased significantly in recent years. There is potential to further enhance engagement with and impact of the website.

- A key challenge is enhancing awareness of internationally recognised equity policies, programmes and initiatives among staff and students who have competing demands on their time.

Strategic initiatives to improve/maintain performance and address this challenge:

- Enhance equity communications strategies and engagement with key networks.

KPI that measures the achievement of the objective:

- Increase average monthly page views of the website.

Key objective 2:
Contribute to increasing applications from Māori and Equity group/UTAS students

Significant achievements and major challenges:

- The Equity Office delivers outreach to Māori and equity groups through events, networks and collateral. Satisfaction measures are high.

- A major challenge is influencing more students to seek admission to the University in the context of growing competition between tertiary providers.

Strategic initiatives to improve/maintain performance and address challenges:

- Increase emphasis within Equity Office outreach events of the benefits of studying at the UoA, including future career pathways.

KPI that measures the achievement of the objective:

- Increase in the % of students attending Equity Office outreach events who indicate they will apply to study at the UoA.
Key objective 3:

Enhancing support for Māori and equity group students' achievement at the UoA

Significant achievements and major challenges:

- The Equity Office supports achievement of Māori and equity students.

- Key challenges are data availability, increasing awareness of available support (refer Key Objective 1), and addressing potential stigma associated with accessing support.

Strategic initiatives to improve/maintain performance and address challenges:

- Enhanced accountability and implementation of equity initiatives via the Equity Leadership Committee and key networks.

KPI that measures the achievement of the objective:

- Increase the % of Māori and Pacific UTAS students registered to participate in the Tuākana Learning Community.

- Maintain the % of UTAS students with disabilities registered with Student Disability Services.

Operational risks

Faculties report challenges accessing reliable data to assist with student support, planning and reporting.

Prioritisation of resources / Budget strategies to remain within current levels of resourcing

The Equity Office has reorganised roles, responsibilities and work flow to ensure the office supports faculties and service divisions to achieve strategic priorities and to ensure expenditure remains within allocated funding levels.
