About this guide

This guide is designed for all postgraduate students in the Faculty of Arts. It alerts you to the information you need for a smooth and successful study experience and tells you where to find it. In most cases we will direct you to web pages on the Faculty of Arts or University website. This guide is intended to be used electronically so that you can follow the links.

Admission and enrolment

Admission and enrolment are two separate processes. You must first apply to be admitted to a programme and then enrol in courses.

The information in this section does not apply to PhD students. Refer instead to information about admission to the PhD at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/phd

How to apply

Your application process depends on whether or not you have previously been enrolled at the University of Auckland. Find out about how to apply at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/pg-application

International students

You are an international student if you are not a citizen or permanent resident of New Zealand or Australia, or a New Zealand citizen from the Cook Islands, Tokelau or Niue. International students apply in the same way as other students. You must meet English language requirements – these are indicated at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/pg-application

Enrolling in courses

Consult a Graduate Adviser

You must consult a Graduate Adviser about your study plans before you apply and before you enrol each year. See the information about contacts on pg. 15.

How to enrol

To find out how to enrol, visit www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/pg-enrolment

When to enrol

Enrolment for 2018 opens on Wednesday 1 November 2018.

You can finalise your enrolment up to the end of the deadline dates specified for changing enrolment. Find out more at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/changing-pg-enrolment

Full-year (A and B) courses

Courses taken over two semesters have A and B course codes. You should be aware of what is involved with A and B courses for enrolment purposes. If you enrol in Part A of a course, you must also complete Part B. See the information at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/pg-enrolment

How many points to enrol in

For definitions of full-time and part-time study and limits on how many points you can take, see the information at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/pg-enrolment

For the purposes of student loans and allowances:

Visit www.auckland.ac.nz/studentloansandallowances

Check with StudyLink: www.studylink.govt.nz

Changing your enrolment

You can change your enrolment within deadline dates without penalty. You can finalise your enrolment up to the end of the deadline dates specified for changing enrolment. Find out more at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/changing-pg-enrolment

Pulling out of a course after the deadline for deletions

You must follow a formal procedure – if you just stop attending, you will remain enrolled in the course. What you need to do will depend on why you need, or want, to discontinue your enrolment. See the information at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/changing-pg-enrolment

Suspending your studies

Postgraduate enrolment must be continuous. If you are unable to study in a particular semester you may need to apply for a suspension of time, depending on your degree. See your supervisor or Graduate Adviser.

Subjects and courses

Each subject has its own set of pages on the Faculty of Arts website. There you can access course information and the degree requirements for your subject.

Web addresses for each subject are listed on pg. 5-6. You can also access all Faculty of Arts subjects in one place at www.arts.auckland.ac.nz/subjects-courses

Where to find information relating to your subject

On your subject's web page you'll find a link to a "Postgraduate study" page and a separate link to PhD information, if applicable.

The "Postgraduate study" page gives you an overview of postgraduate study in that subject and information for each relevant programme (eg, Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Master of Arts). This includes:

- Admission requirements, including any special application procedures.
- The required course of study for each programme. Follow the link to the schedule in the online University of Auckland Calendar for your programme and subject (eg, MA in Art History). The schedule specifies the courses you can and must take.
- There are also links to the University regulations for your programme and the University regulations governing all postgraduate programmes.

The links to schedules and regulations lead to the online University of Auckland Calendar, the University's official document. You must ensure that you are aware of and comply with these regulations, requirements and policies.

The online Calendar is published annually on 1 November for the following year. Consult the Calendar for your year of study, as schedules and regulations may be updated from year to year. Visit www.auckland.ac.nz/calendar

A printed version is also available. However, we recommend that you consult the online Calendar, as it includes updates. If updates apply, "2018 University Calendar updates" will be indicated near the top of the relevant web page.

Where to find course information

Where – Go to your subject's web page and follow the link to postgraduate courses. On this page you'll see a list of courses with their availability. You can follow links for each course to get more information.

When – Course information for the following year is published on the Faculty of Arts website in October and on Student Services Online in early November (www.studentservices.auckland.ac.nz).

Course availability – Availability is subject to change, which is why we do not print course information. Changes to availability are kept up-to-date on the Faculty website and Student Services Online, so check before you begin enrolment procedures. If availability is listed as "TBA" (to be advised) you can contact your discipline or school.

Timetables – To find course timetables you must use Student Services Online. Timetables are subject to change and should be checked before you begin enrolment procedures.

Room allocations – These are posted on Student Services Online (in Class Search, Enrolment Cart and Course Catalogue). Rooms may change in the first two weeks of semester – check room allocations either the night before or the day of your class. If "TBA" (to be advised) is indicated, contact your school or discipline.

Courses taught by other faculties – Some subjects available for Arts programmes are taught by other faculties (eg, Education, Geography, Psychology). In most cases we are not able to publish information about courses taught by other faculties. Go to the subject's web page on the Faculty of Arts website. On the "Postgraduate courses" page we will direct you to the other faculty's website.

To see a list of all Faculty of Arts postgraduate courses (with up-to-date availability) go to www.artsfaculty.auckland.ac.nz/pg-courses

Academic integrity requirement

All undergraduate and postgraduate students admitted for the first time to a programme at the University are required to take an online academic integrity course. Visit www.academicintegrity.auckland.ac.nz
