Congratulations on your acceptance into this Faculty of Education and Social Work programme, and welcome.
This programme induction has been organised as the first step in a career-long process of professional growth.
The Induction Day is considered by the faculty to be the first official day of your programme of study and you are required to attend.

Today you will:
• Be officially welcomed onto the campus
• Meet key faculty staff
• Be shown how to access the programme handbook
• Find out about the faculty services
• Discuss professional expectations and requirements
• Be given curriculum documents
• Complete your Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA)
