

Doctoral Scholarship Opportunity

CENTRE FOR GLOBAL CHILDHOODS

A one-time doctoral scholarship for a high achieving international or domestic student undertaking research related to global childhoods and early years.

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP

- Scholarship valued at $33,000 p.a. plus compulsory fees for up to 36 months full-time study
- Available to domestic students and domestic fee-paying international students
- Paid work may not exceed 750 hours per 12-month period of scholarship tenure
- Applicants who already have a doctorate are not eligible for consideration
- Closing date for Expressions of Interest: 1 August 2023
- Application for doctoral programme: 1 November 2023
- Enrolment in doctoral programme required by: 1 March 2024 or 1 June 2024

The successful applicant will undertake a PhD thesis in the Centre for Global Childhoods, Faculty of Education and Social Work that aims to make a positive contribution towards the strategic research goals of the Centre, supervised by the Centre Director – Professor Marek Tesar.

Ideal research might include interdisciplinary studies focused on children's rights, participation, voice or relationships with their local place / space and wellbeing. Studies may also focus on social or environmental inequality and justice, and be conducted as cross-country studies within or outside of formal education settings in Aotearoa New Zealand or overseas. Of particular interest is research that uses innovative methodologies and frameworks where research is conducted with and by children. Māori and Pasifika applicants will be prioritised.

For expressions of interest, please contact the Centre Director at childhoods@auckland.ac.nz
