Evidence of Funds

1. Funds must be in a New Zealand bank account.
2. You must have the ability to access your funds at any time.
3. You must have a bank transaction history showing a minimum of 3 months, not an ATM receipt. If you have linked accounts, for example a cheque/debit and savings accounts with the same bank, you will be asked to show 3 months bank statements for both accounts.
4. Print your bank transaction history/statement at least one day after your fee payment is received in Student Services Online
5. The bank statement/transaction history must include the following:
  - your name
  - bank account number
  - available funds must be in New Zealand dollars
  - the start and maturity date of your term deposit (for term deposits only).
  - Print your bank statement no more than 2 days before you apply for your visa
6. AskAuckland Central is unable to accept a bank statement showing any deposits of NZ$3,000 or more in the four weeks prior to your student visa submission, unless funds have come directly from an overseas bank account. You may also be asked to explain the reason for any domestic transfers paid into your account that are visible on the bank statement.
