APPLICATION FOR AEGROTAT OR COMPASSIONATE CONSIDERATION FOR WRITTEN TEST

IN ORDER TO APPLY

1. You must be enrolled in the course.
2. The test must count for a percentage of the marks awarded for the course.
3. You must have been prevented from sitting the test or consider that your preparation for and/or performance in the test was seriously impaired, because of temporary illness or injury or exceptional circumstances beyond your control.
4. You must have attempted the test if at all possible.
5. You must apply at the time of the test, pay the application fee of $10 per course and submit this form with the evidence within one week of the test.
6. The regulation governing consideration for written tests is set out in the Examination Regulations in the University of Auckland Calendar, visit www.calendar.auckland.ac.nz.

MEDICAL OR OTHER EVIDENCE

1. The medical or other evidence must be sufficient to make it clear that you were either unable to attend the test or your preparation for and/or performance in the test was seriously impaired.
2. Where temporary illness or injury is concerned, you must see a registered medical doctor or dentist at the time of the test, while you are still unwell, and ask them to complete Section B of this form.
3. Where exceptional circumstances other than illness or injury are concerned, you must complete Section C and provide suitable supporting evidence. Your statement must include the dates or period of time when the circumstances occurred.
4. The evidence in Sections B and C will be referred to the University’s medical or counselling advisers for consideration. If they certify that the evidence is in order, your Academic Head will be asked to make a decision on academic grounds, and will notify you of that decision by completing Section H and forwarding a copy to you within 21 days. If the evidence is not in order, you will be advised by the Examinations Office.
5. Information provided in Sections B and C is referred only to the University’s medical or counselling advisers, and is held in confidence by them.

SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION
