Postgraduate English Language Proficiency Requirements and International English Language Equivalencies

Overview

The University of Auckland (UoA) sets standards for English Language proficiency for admission to the University for international applicants. All international applicants are required to provide satisfactory evidence of their proficiency in English. This could take the form of an acceptable English language test such as IELTS or TOEFL. Please note that New Zealand and Australian citizens are not included as they are domestic students.

Approved by Education Committee in September 2018 and effective for applications received after 1 October 2018, for commencement in Semester 1 2019 and onwards.
1 International Students from Majority English Speaking Countries

Passport holders of the countries listed below will be deemed to have satisfied English language proficiency requirements if they have successful tertiary study in the English medium:

- The United Kingdom
- The Republic of Ireland
- The United States of America
- Canada
- Singapore

Please note that some Education and Social Work programmes may still require an IELTS test to be submitted due to professional registration requirements.

If you have completed tertiary study in the English medium but you are not a passport holder of one of the countries listed above please refer to the sections below for further information.

2 English Proficiency Tests

Validity Period - All test results are valid for two years from the date on the test certificate to UoA programme commencement. The requirements must be met within one test certificate.

Exceptions - some programmes have higher requirements; for these please refer to the degree specific requirements on page 9.

3 Prior Study in English

Validity Period – Prior study in English is valid for two years from the completion of study to UoA programme commencement. With evidence of residence in New Zealand or another predominately English-speaking country\(^1\), or English language work experience the validity period is 5 years. This will be assessed on a case-by-case basis at the time of application.

The following qualifications/scores are acceptable IELTS equivalencies. Some of the programmes below only have IELTS equivalency for IELTS 6.5 (no band below 6.0). If you are applying for a programme with a higher IELTS requirement, you will need to sit one of the approved English proficiency tests in Section 2.

Please note that some Education and Social Work programmes may still require an IELTS test to be submitted due to professional registration requirements.

The Occupational English Test (OET) will be accepted for all Faculty of Medical and Health Science programmes. A grade of C+ (or 300 out of 500) will be considered equivalent to an IELTS score of 6.5 (no band below 6.0). Please note that the duration of validity for Section 2 applies here.

\textsuperscript{6} National Recognition Information Centre - UK

\textsuperscript{7} National Office of Overseas Skills Recognition – Australia

Approved by Education Committee in September 2018 and effective for applications received after 1 October 2018, for commencement in Semester 1 2019 and onwards.
5 English Language Waivers

Students who have not met English proficiency through the above standards may in some circumstances be granted a waiver\(^8\). Applicants to sub-doctoral programmes will be assessed by Applications and Admissions on a case-by-case basis, at the time of application. All applicants for whom a waiver is granted will be required to sit a Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA) within two weeks of commencement of study, and to undertake any recommended enrichment/support. For Doctoral applications, a recommendation must be submitted by the Associate Dean (Postgraduate) of the relevant faculty for approval by the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic). All cases will be assessed on a case by case basis.

Circumstances under which an applicant may be considered for a waiver include the following:

5.1 Marginal TOEFL/IELTS

IELTS: Where the student has submitted an overall IELTS result which is lower than the minimum requirement by 0.5-1.0 point, but the written and reading scores meet the minimum. That is, an IELTS speaking or listening score may be lower by 0.5-1.0 point but an IELTS with a low writing or reading score will NOT be considered.

TOEFL: Where the student has submitted a TOEFL (paper based) which is lower than the minimum requirement by up to 5 points, or a TOEFL (internet based) which is lower than the minimum requirement by up to 2 points, but the written English score meets or exceeds the minimum.

PTE: Where the student has submitted an overall PTE result which is lower than the minimum requirement by up to 8 points, but the communicative score meets the minimum.

5.2 Other

A combination of at least two of the following factors:

- A postgraduate qualification (at least one year in duration) or bachelor degree from a university, or polytechnic institution located in one of the countries listed in section 3.2, and completed more than 5 years prior to the commencement of study at UoA
- Current GRE or GMAT score
- Medium of instruction for bachelor degree is English
- Published research in English and presented in English at conference(s)
- Evidence of extensive work experience in the English language

\(^8\) Waiver requests will not be considered for doctoral applicants unless an accepted English language test has been undertaken, usually within the last 2 years

Approved by Education Committee in September 2018 and effective for applications received after 1 October 2018, for commencement in Semester 1 2019 and onwards.
