The University of Auckland welcomes you.

You have made a wise choice in selecting the University of Auckland as your destination for university studies in New Zealand, and qualifying for admission to the University through our Certificate in Foundation Studies.

This programme has been taught exclusively through Academic Colleges Group (ACG) since February 1999. We have observed that students who come to us through this programme have performed well academically at university level.

The collaboration between the University of Auckland and ACG offers you access to a comprehensive range of world-class qualifications in an excellent learning environment. The University of Auckland Certificate in Foundation Studies is accredited by the New Zealand Vice Chancellors’ Committee and is recognised for entry to all New Zealand universities.

The University of Auckland was established in 1883 and is New Zealand’s leading university. It is an international centre of learning and academic excellence. Around 42,000 students choose to study at the University each year, of whom over 6,000 are international, from 110 countries.

Graduates from the University of Auckland occupy leading positions in such diverse areas as business, law, medicine, politics and the professions, within New Zealand and overseas.

The University of Auckland guarantees entry to students whose results in the Certificate in Foundation Studies meet the published standards required for each of the University’s degree programmes, and who meet other entry requirements for admission to the University.

On behalf of the University of Auckland, I welcome you to our Certificate in Foundation Studies programme and look forward to welcoming you to the University on successful completion of your foundation studies at ACG.

Best wishes for your studies.

Professor Stuart McCutcheon

Academic excellence – the key to success

ACG recruits the best specialists in each field of study. A dedicated group of professional educators is committed to creating a study environment that focuses on the learning needs of students. We personalise the learning experience by tailoring programmes to meet your individual needs and to reflect your ability and prior learning. Teaching includes lessons, tutorials and self-study periods. Contact periods occupy an average of 25 hours per week. You are assigned a tutor, who provides counselling and is available to listen and help with any questions or difficulties you may have. You are expected to spend 20 hours per week in self-study.

Free iPads

When you enrol in a university foundation studies programme at ACG, you will receive an iPad free of charge for the duration of your course. You will have full access to a complete set of course materials via the iPad.

* The above subjects are subject to sufficient enrolments. ACG reserves the right to revise or postpone course starting dates without notice.
Welcome to Auckland, New Zealand

Why New Zealand?

New Zealand consists of two main islands in the South Pacific, three hours to the east of Australia by plane, an overnight flight west of the USA, or ten to twelve hours direct flight from most Pacific Rim countries. It is beautiful in its geographical diversity. Comparable in size and shape to Great Britain or Japan, it is a stable English-speaking democracy with a population of approximately 4.7 million people, making it one of the world’s least crowded countries.

Internationally it is known for the beauty of the landscape and the culture of the Māori - New Zealand’s first nation people. The cities are clean, open and lively, with Auckland in particular showing many Pacific influences. New Zealand’s oceans, mountains, and open spaces provide many opportunities for adventure tourism.

New Zealand has earned an international reputation for its politically independent stance, support for environmental causes and radical economic reforms. Its people have made significant contributions to the worlds of science and technology, the arts, medicine, conservation, food, wine, sports and fashion.

New Zealand is ranked 4th on the Global Peace Index 2016 for the most peaceful nation on earth and is also in the top 10 countries of the United Nations’ index measuring key dimensions of human development (a long and healthy life, access to knowledge and a decent standard of living).

The quality of education in New Zealand ranks highly by world standards.

Why Auckland?

With a population of approximately 1.5 million, Auckland is New Zealand’s largest city and the country’s economic hub. It consistently rates as one of the world’s most desirable cities in which to live and currently ranks third out of 230 world cities for quality of life.

The city is surrounded by two harbours - the Waitemata and the Manukau - and is often referred to as the “City of Sails” due to Aucklanders’ love for water sports and the sea. The cultural facilities and educational institutions are major attractions for people from other countries.

Auckland’s climate is temperate and perfect for enjoying the many beautiful and clean beaches within easy reach of the city. Temperatures range from an average of 24 degrees in summer (December to March) to 16 degrees in winter (June to August).

Auckland is a city of cultural diversity with a large Polynesian, Māori and Asian, as well as European, population. This diversity brings with it an abundance of unique cultural experiences and entertainment, a passion for the arts, food and fashion, and a bustling inner city.

Auckland is a vibrant and forward-thinking city which embraces the contributions of its many young people.

Hello, I am Tam. I’m 19 years old and I’m from Vietnam.

I really enjoy living and studying here. ACG Pathways Campus has such a good study environment. This is a place where you can develop speaking, listening, writing and, improve your social skills. The teaching methods are varied and flexible. As well as quality time in class, students are encouraged to make the most of self-study and to do their own research. This is a whole new experience for me and it’s great.

Next year I’m going to do a Bachelor of Arts in TESOL* at the University of Auckland and after that I’m going to keep studying to get a masters degree in TESOL*. After that I will go home and become a university English lecturer. I’d like to learn flexible methods of teaching English here in New Zealand and then apply them back home to help other students to master this subject as people in Vietnam find speaking English very difficult.

I’m Krystal. I’m 19 years old and I’m Tam’s twin sister.

ACG is where my future began. I love it here. I feel warmly welcomed, I am encouraged to keep moving forward and I feel safe and accepted here. Everyone is very helpful and I feel at home.

In Vietnam we learn a lot of theory but we are not taught how to apply it. But here we learn in new ways, new methods. Learning takes place both inside and outside the classroom. Students can research and study by themselves which makes them remember things better.

Next year I will study a Bachelor of Arts in TESOL* at the University of Auckland, just like Tam, to become an English lecturer but I have other options too. Presently, I find economics quite interesting. I love teaching and whatever I teach, I just want to teach it in English.

New Zealand is such a great choice. It’s a safe place with many job opportunities and it’s not far from my country. The people here are just so friendly, I loved New Zealanders the moment I came here.

Discover Auckland with ACG

Location
The ACG Pathways Campus is conveniently located in Queen Street in the heart of Auckland City, a short walk from the University of Auckland. The central location means easy access to public transport, accommodation, shops, cafes and restaurants.

Facilities
ACG has teaching facilities of the highest quality, including spacious, air-conditioned and well-equipped classrooms, self-access and information facilities and computer laboratories. All students have free access to the internet and email.

Student Services
Our staff are qualified people with an excellent attitude of service and support for the students. They are available to provide information and assistance to students and their parents. All students receive a full orientation programme on arrival to allow them to quickly settle into College life.

The deans, teachers, academic support staff and International Centre staff all work together to give each student encouragement, structure and support. Our staff organise banking, medical and travel insurance, visas and bus passes as required. Each student can be confident that help is readily available.

Accommodation
We organise accommodation with friendly homestay families who offer a clean and safe environment, support students outside of school time and contribute significantly to the development of cultural awareness. Students over 18 years of age and who prefer more independence may elect to stay at selected quality student apartments on a self-catering basis.

My name is Daria and I’m from Krasnodar, Russia. I’m 19 years old.

When I finished school in my country I wanted to go to university overseas and study in English. My parents travelled to New Zealand and liked it so much they suggested I come here to study. Also, in comparison with other English-speaking countries, New Zealand is more affordable.

I chose New Zealand because it is safe and has a high quality of life. To live here is a good chance to learn about another culture and get a different perspective of my own life. When you are so far from your country, family and friends you begin to understand what you really want from life, what your dreams are and who you really are. Also, your thoughts, beliefs and attitudes change and your vision of the world expands. Every day I meet people from different backgrounds and I try to build good relationships with them and learn something new from them. This is very useful for my personal development and a perfect opportunity to have a great experience.

Since I started studying at ACG, every day has been very interesting and I have learnt a lot about other countries and cultures. Sometimes it can be quite difficult to study and express yourself clearly in another language. Also, the study methods here are pretty different from the ones in my country so you have to learn to study in a new way, but the teachers are always there to help you. I also like the people with whom I’m studying. I’ve made some good friends here.

After I complete my foundation studies at ACG, I’m going to enter the University of Auckland to study medicinal chemistry or pharmacology.

To qualify for the University of Auckland Certificate in Foundation Studies, students must pass a minimum of four academic subjects (40% is a pass) and achieve a B Grade or higher in EAP or an IELTS level of at least 6.0 overall. Entry to the University of Auckland requires the Certificate in Foundation Studies and a minimum aggregate of marks as listed above, and a B Grade or higher in EAP or an IELTS level of at least 6.0 overall with no band less than 5.5. Some programmes require an IELTS grade and higher pass marks and may set other entry criteria.

Notes:
1. Faculties with programmes that specify ‘Selection’ have additional entry requirements and entry is subject to faculty approval. The scores listed are alone not sufficient for entry.
2. A minimum of one of the following science subjects is required to be passed: Biology, Calculus, Chemistry, Geography, Physics, and Statistics.
3. One year BHSc (Biomedical Science) or BPharm, plus two additional years in the MBChB programme if admission is gained.
4. One year BHSc (Biomedical Science), plus four additional years in the MBChB programme if admission is gained.
5. One year BHSc (Biomedical Science) or BPharm, plus three additional years in the BPharm programme if admission is gained.
6. Duration of conjoint programmes varies.

The above information is correct as at December 2016, and is subject to change.

CODES OF PRACTICE FOR THE PASTORAL CARE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

ACG and its colleges have agreed to observe and be bound by the New Zealand Government’s Education (Pastoral Care for International Students) Code of Practice 2016. Copies of the Code are available on request from this institution or from the New Zealand Qualifications Authority website at nzqa/the-code.

IMMIGRATION: Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available through Immigration New Zealand, and can be viewed on their website at immigration.govt.nz.

ELIGIBILITY FOR HEALTH SERVICES: Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand.

If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly-funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website at moh.govt.nz.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE: The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at acc.co.nz.

MEDICAL AND TRAVEL INSURANCE: International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand.

It is a requirement for all international students studying with ACG to have comprehensive medical and travel insurance cover. Students can either have the cover arranged by ACG or produce evidence at the time of application that they have insurance cover from another company that meets the approval of ACG.

As at December 2016, every attempt was made to present accurate information in this prospectus. ACG reserves the right to change without notice programmes, terms and conditions both before and after students’ admission.
